The CoP Self-Assessment Tool Overview

There are four components of the Communities of Practice (CoP) Self-Assessment Tool (the Tool) including the:

> Domains

The CoP Self-Assessment Tool sets out the five domains of leadership development which should be supported and enabled by the CoP Approach. There are 18 sub-domains which specify how each domain should look in practice. This information can be used to guide planning and delivery of the CoP Approach within each network.

> Survey

The CoP Self-Assessment tool is an online survey that will be distributed on an annual basis. Click here to access the survey, or copy and paste the link into your browser

<https://survey.alchemer.com/s3/7379163/CoP-SELF-ASSESSMENT-TOOL>

Please do not exit your browser part way through completion. If you do want to save your progress hit 'save and continue later' in the top right corner and enter your email address.

> Guidance for Progression

After you have completed the survey, the guidance for progression provide tips and advice on how to improve the network's rating against the domains.

> Working documents for network discussion

This is a separate document that can be printed or used electronically to facilitate a discussion in your network to prepare for the survey. It contains all of the survey questions with space to consider evidence and next steps. Download the working documents from the AcademyOnline space.

Background

The evaluation of the CoP approach identified that the Tool needed updating to go beyond measuring maturity to being able to support Network's to reflect and grow with their CoPs.

Updates include:

- > simplified questionnaire to define success, encourage self-reflection and provide Networks and The Academy with ongoing performance (monitoring) data to track growth
- > redeveloped guidance that can be reviewed in tandem or separately to completing the questionnaire
- > embedded case studies of CoPs demonstrating leading practice to share key learnings.

Domains

The following domains of leadership development should be supported and enabled by the CoP Approach

Domains	 Community How we work together	 Professional Practice How we learn together	 Professional Knowledge What we learn together	 Professional Ethics Why we learn together	 Endorsed and Enabled What helps us learn together
Sub-domains	System Leadership	Joint Problem Solving	Vision	Moral Purpose	Social Capital
	Accountability	Peer Challenge	Strategic Focus	Outcome-driven	Resources
	Diversity	Trust	Personal Leadership	Partnership	Self-improvement
		Transparency	Leadership and Enablement		Resilience

Domain 1 – Community: How we work together

Sub-domain	CoP approach standard
System Leadership Exercising systemic leadership enables systemic improvement.	We collaborate with the education system leaders, and with leaders in adjacent systems such as health and human services, the community sector and private enterprise.
Accountability Collective and individual accountability maintains focus and purpose	We hold ourselves and each other accountable for the commitments we make.
Diversity Diversity of CoP membership enriches connections and learning.	We invite diverse perspectives from the range of schools within and outside our Network and involve teacher and student voice in our decisions.

Domain 2 – Professional practice: How we learn together

Sub-domain	CoP approach standard
Joint problem solving Solving problems together leads to better outcomes	We work as a group to solve systemic problems, capitalise on opportunities, and develop better practices for improving student outcomes.
Peer challenge Peer-to-peer learning is enabled by inviting critical perspectives	We respectfully challenge each other to strengthen our leadership, practices and student outcomes
Trust Reciprocal trust is foundation of effective peer-to-peer learning and network improvement	We trust each other enough to share and interrogate data and information about ourselves- and from our schools
Transparency Effective monitoring assists improvement of practice and systems	We monitor, document and share progress against our CoPs goals.

Domain 3 – Professional knowledge: What we learn together

Sub-domain	CoP approach standard
Vision Long term vision enables strategic improvements	Our learning aspirations are guided by a longer-term vision for improving student outcomes.
Strategic focus A strategic rather than operational focus is required for system leadership	We focus on systemic and strategic leadership, rather than on operational matters.
Personal leadership Effective leaders are critical to an effective system	Our CoP members are improving their personal, organisational and systemic leadership.
Leadership enablement Enabling others to lead strengthens networked, systemic leadership	CoP members actively enable professional growth in other leaders in our schools and our network

Domain 4 – Professional ethics: Why we learn together

Sub-domain	CoP approach standard
Moral purpose A shared moral purpose is a powerful enabler of collective change	We share a sense of moral purpose and responsibility for all students across our network
Outcome-driven The CoP's goal is to improve student and school outcomes	Our learning is ultimately focused on advancing educational outcomes within our network.
Partnership Valuing collaboration and the insights others bring motivates shared learning	We operate with a strong sense of partnership, not competition.

Domain 5 – Endorsed and enabled: What helps us learn together

Sub-domain	CoP approach standard
Social capital Strong relationships and social capital within the network are enabling of shared learning	Our peer relationships are characterised by reciprocal trust, respect and generosity.
Resources Using data, evidence and tools strengthens decision-making and learning activities	We make effective use of data, evidence and tools to support how we learn.
Self-improvement A self-improving network creates a reinforcing cycle of positive change	We reflect on and improve how we operate as a Community of Practice.
Resilience A resilient network can drive system outcomes even when under pressure	We continue working well as a network even when resources are under pressure.

The Survey

The CoP Self-Assessment Tool can be accessed via this survey link. The self-assessment tool is to be completed once for each network.

The Survey is designed to help you reflect on how your network is applying the CoP approach by answering questions about your practices across the five domains.

Each domain has three or four statements that are rated on a ten-point scale from Never – Always

	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Never	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	Always

The preferred method is for you to complete the tool collectively as a Network Executive team and use the tool to facilitate reflection to help you decide how your CoP scores in each category. However, it can also be completed just by the Network Chair and/or SEIL.

Working documents are available in Appendix 1 to guide your conversation within your network.

At the end of each domain, you will receive a rating indicating if your Network is Emerging, Evolving, Embedding or Excelling. You can keep track of your results in the working documents, by taking a screen shot or printing directly from your internet browser.

Self-Assessment Tool: Guidance for progression

Components of the Self-Assessment Tool:

- > Domains: The CoP Self-Assessment Tool sets out the five domains of leadership development which should be supported and enabled by the CoP Approach. There are 18 sub-domains which specify how each domain should look in practice.
- > Survey: The online survey asks you to rate each of the sub-domains on a ten-point scale from Never to Always. You will receive a total score for the domain which will place your network as Emerging, Evolving, Embedding or Excelling.
- > Guidance for Progression: After completing the survey, these provide Networks with tips and advice improve and evolve their application of the Communities of Practice Approach against each domain.
- > Working documents for network discussion: A separate document that can be printed or used electronically to facilitate a discussion in your network to prepare for the survey.
